To the Editor:

Princeton is one community; there is no doubt about it. Princetonians live in eight adjacent municipalities. Most Princetonians live in Princeton Borough or Princetown Township. Some Princetonians live in West Windsor Township, Plainsboro Township, South Brunswick Township, Franklin Township, Montgomery Township, or Lawrence Township, where some have United States Postal Service Princeton mailing addresses and some have landlines telephone Princeton exchanges.

Princetonians who wish to retain their Borough of Princeton residence and Princetonians who wish to retain their Township of Princeton residence should vote “no” on the forthcoming consolidation resolution.

Very truly yours,

Henry Frank
